The Parable of the Sower

Matthew 13:3-9 Mark 4:3-9 Luke 8:5-8

Jesus got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And He said...

One day, a  went out to plant in his fields. As the  walked, some  fell on the path. Some  came and ate the  that fell. Some  fell on  where there was little dirt for them to grow. The  sprouted right away but when the  rose, they burned and withered because they had no roots. Some  fell among  and the  grew up and choked the plants. But some  fell on rich dirt, started to  and produced plenty of fruit. The  sown by the  that fall on the path and are eaten by  are like people who hear God without understanding and their faith is easily stolen. The  that grow among  are like people whose faith is easily lost when life becomes rocky. The  that grow among  are like people whose faith is choked by riches. But the  that  in good dirt are like people who hear God
